* Assessed Russian advances are areas where ISW assesses Russian forces have operated in or launched attacks against but do not control.

Note: We expanded Russian assessed advances to the eastern outskirts of Kodema, Donetsk Oblast, given that the Ukrainian General Staff reported that Russian forces had a partially successful offensive operation in the direction of Vidrodzhennya-Kodema on August 2. The Ukrainian General Staff previously reported that Russian forces were partially successful in their advances on Semihirya (just southeast of Kodema) on July 30, and it is likely that Russian forces advanced through the settlement towards Kodema. The Ukrainian Joint Forces Operation reported on July 29 that Ukrainian forces liberated an unnamed village in the Donetsk Oblast direction. ISW will update our maps when open sources name the liberated settlement.

* Assessed Russian advances are areas where ISW assesses Russian forces have operated in or launched attacks against but do not control.

Note: Kherson Oblast Administration Head Dmytro Butriy reported on August 2 that Ukrainian forces liberated an additional seven unnamed villages in Kherson Oblast. ISW will continue to monitor the situation and will update our maps when open sources name the liberated settlements.
